

ABOUT LIZ WILLIAMS

Liz Williams founded Collaboration Zone to help groups and teams produce superior results. She believes great meetings build great teams, and great teams produce great products, services and organizations. Liz uses a combination of assessments, skill-building workshops, individual and group coaching, and meeting facilitation, to close the gap between classroom learning and your real-world situation.

As a speaker, Liz is known for being funny, dynamic and practical. Participant's leave her programs motivated to take immediate, small steps that yield profound and lasting results.

Liz's speaking clients include Lucile Packard Children's Hospital, Kaiser Permanente, The PAC-10 Alumni Association, The California Assisted Living Association (CALA), and The National Association of Real Estate Investment Managers (NAREIM).
